Assemblywoman Teresa Sayward Speaks At Silver Bay YMCA

Silver Bay, NY – August 4, 2010 – On Monday, August 2nd, 2010 Assemblywoman Teresa Sayward spoke at Silver Bay YMCA. Assemblywoman Sayward discussed political ethics and our perception versus how it plays out in reality within the political arena. Over 40 people from Silver Bay and the community attended the lecture titled “Political Ethics in Government”.

Assemblywoman Sayward represents the 113th Assembly District, which includes Essex County (except St. Armand), Hamilton County, Warren County and six towns in Saratoga County (Corinth, Day, Edinburg, Hadley, Moreau and Providence) in the NYS Assembly.

“It was a pleasure to be a guest at the lecture series at Silver Bay to discuss ethics in government. The participants were attentive and appreciated the candid conversations. It is with open and direct dialogue that we can accomplish much needed reform in government. Many thanks to Silver Bay for holding this lecture”, stated Assemblywoman Sayward.

Silver Bay YMCA - Silver Bay provides programs for local school children, supports local government and community organizations, and provides community members’ financial assistance. The YMCA focuses their work in three key areas: Youth Development, Healthy Living, & Social Responsibility.
