Lineup for Silver Bay's Mountain Music Festival announced

Exciting lineup in store for 2025 music festival

Silver Bay – Silver Bay YMCA is very excited to announce the lineup for Silver Bay's Mountain Music Festival being held September 12 – 14, 2025.

"Silver Bay's Mountain Music Festival is packed with excitement! With bluegrass at its core, each performer offers a fresh twist on the genre, blending classical elements or exploring alternative sounds. These artists are pushing boundaries and taking their music to new heights," Silver Bay's Assistant VP of Campus and Conference Programming Chet Lastowski said enthusiastically.

Friday night performers include Tim Rodrigue & Norm Allen, Reese Fulmer & The Carriage House Band, and the Bunker Boys. Saturday is packed full of performances by On the Trail, Reese Fulmer & The Carriage House Band, City Pickers, Bloodroot Gap, Becky Buller & Ned Luberecki, Barefoot Movement, and the Kruger Bros. The festival wraps up on Sunday with a "Gospel Hour" performance and Upstate Bluegrass Band will be playing on the Inn Porch as a postlude for the festival.

Silver Bay's VP of Sales and Marketing Lindsey Butler stated, "We're thrilled to revamp Silver Bay's Mountain Music Festival this year, expanding the event to include more dynamic performances in the Auditorium and utilizing the central area of our campus to enhance the experience. This new layout will create more opportunities for guests to connect with the music, the artists, and the beautiful surroundings in ways we haven't done before. It's all about elevating the festival and bringing a fresh energy to this beloved tradition."

Tickets are now on sale for Silver Bay's Mountain Music Festival through Eventbrite and at silverbay.org/silver-bays-mmfm/. Ticket options include general admission (with youth, child, and infant tickets available) and VIP Tickets! A promo code, early bird, is currently available for a $10 discount on ticket sales.

"We've added new workshops, revamped the schedule so performances don't overlap, and added new VIP perks such as dinner with the artists. It's going to be a great festival," added Lastowski.

Butler remarked, "The festival's mission remains unchanged: to bring people together through the power of music, all while taking in the stunning views and exceptional facilities that Silver Bay YMCA provides. We have worked hard to ensure the festival does just that and we can't wait for everyone to be able to experience it come September."
